DIAZ SAYS HE STILL IN RACE

Refuses to Withdraw and Promises to be in the Capital Tomorrow

HUERTA'S NAME IS ON THE OFFICIAL BALLOT

Washington Does Not Expect Tomorrow's Voting to Result in Any Choice

VERA CRUZ, Oct. 25.—Felix Diaz today issued the following statement: "I will be a presidential candidate tomorrow. My friends insist that I run and I will not withdraw. I will reach the capital in time for the balloting. It is impossible to forecast the result."

HUERTA'S NAME IS ON OFFICIAL BALLOT

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 25.—Despite his disavowal of his candidacy yesterday Huerta's name appeared today at the head of his party's official ballot for tomorrow's election. General Blanquet is his running mate. The other candidates are: National Democratic, Felix Diaz and Jose Requena; Clerical, Federico Gamboa and Eusebio Rascon; Liberal, Manuel Calero and Jesus Mazon; Liberal Republican, David de la Fuente and Andrea Enrique.

TROOPS INSTRUCTED TO VOTE FOR HUERTA

JUAREZ, Mexico, Oct. 25.—It is asserted here that federal troops have been instructed to support Gen. Huerta in the presidential election. The announcement yesterday that no candidate would accept the election to the presidency has caused no change in these instructions.

WASHINGTON EXPECTS NO DECISION TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—On the eve of the Mexican election officials here see no sign of improvement in the conditions in Mexico. Indications are that Huerta is pushing his candidacy vigorously. The impression is that no candidate will receive a majority as the Mexican constitution requires, and Huerta will therefore remain in office pending a second election, which he may indefinitely delay. It is understood America will mark time, awaiting election eventualities. It is reported here that President Wilson will order an investigation of the rebels' claims of their ability to defeat the federalists if given arms in the event of Huerta being returned to power.

Despite assurances of British Minister Carden at Mexico City that he was misquoted when he was reported to have said that America doesn't understand conditions in Mexico City, it is no secret here that the administration would be better satisfied with another minister. There is no question, it is asserted, that Huerta would have been overthrown after his proclamation of dictatorship but for Carden's presentation of his credentials then.

BRITISH NEWSPAPERS DENY FRICTION EXISTS

LONDON, Oct. 25.—British newspapers today showed some anxiety over the persistent stories of friction between the Washington and London governments as a result of the Mexican situation. Without exception they denied that there is any possibility of real trouble. They assure Americans editorially that the relations of the two governments are of the friendliest type.

The remarks attributed to Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico City, in which he was quoted as expressing views hostile to the American policies there, are declared to have been misquoted. Americans here have expressed the opinion that if Carden had made remarks as quoted he would have been immediately recalled.

Dreadnoughts Go to Sea

HAMPTON ROADS, Va., Oct. 25.—Nine dreadnoughts of the Atlantic fleet steamed to sea today, ostensibly for a two months' cruise in the Mediterranean. The commanders, however, believed them to be ordered by wireless to Mexican waters.

Monterey Report Confirmed

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 25.—Dispatches today tend to confirm the report that the federalists at Monterey repulsed the rebels, killing five hundred of the latter.

Diaz Will Not Comment

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Felix Diaz, replying to a wired query regarding his election plans, cabled the United Press: "I am prevented from commenting on the elections because in

Dying of Poison Wealthy Man Gives a Party

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—With death but a few hours away at best, Isaac Levy, the wealthy clothing manufacturer of Brooklyn, who on last Monday accidentally took thirty grains of bichloride of mercury, held a tea party today and acted as host to his grief-stricken wife and eleven children.

"Mr. Levy is alive this minute simply because of his indomitable will and refusal to surrender," said his physician, Dr. Jacob Sarnoff, last night, in discussing the dying man's condition. "But even that splendid will power and refusal to recognize the inevitable must succumb shortly to the dreadful poison. Already it has destroyed some of his vital organs. Death is very near."

Mitchell Refuses to Testify Before Committee

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—John Purroy Mitchell, fusion candidate for mayor, has refused to appear before the grand jury and testify as to alleged election frauds. He referred the inquirers to the "Honest Ballot Association."

Volturno Dead Officially Placed at 124

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The total loss of life in the Volturno disaster as fixed yesterday by the Uranium Steamship company, was 134. Of these 102 were passengers.

German Actor is Double of the Kaiser

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—Because the actor, Paul, playing in the comedy "The Gay Capital," looks too much like the Kaiser, the police have ordered him to change his make-up so as not to resemble the emperor.

ARE TO MOVE ITS OFFICES

Highway Commission to Have New Quarters in Register Building

Workmen have commenced finishing the rear half of the second story of the Register Building, making it ready for occupancy by the County Highway Commission. The rooms are admirably lighted and especially well adapted for giving light to a drafting room. The office of the commission and highway engineer and all the departments of the commission will be moved from the courthouse to the Register Building as soon as the quarters are completed.

The change from the courthouse was made necessary by reason of lack of room in that structure. It was found necessary to move the sheriff's office in order to give room for the new courtroom and judge's chambers. After the commission vacates, its rooms in the basement will be occupied by the sheriff's office.

MADE COFFEE OUT OF TOBACCO—ILLNESS

Yesterday morning a family on Riverine avenue was made frightfully ill by drinking the product of a coffee pot. It was not ordinary coffee, however. The man of the house had endeavored to make the coffee, and in the early hours he mistook tobacco for coffee.

Interested persons might suffer. When I reach Mexico City I shall be able to give you a clearer statement on the election."

POWERS TRY TO REACH A COMMON POLICY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Old world messages say the powers are exchanging many notes relative to the Mexican situation. Chancellories are trying to agree on a common policy to be pursued after the Mexican election. In view of the American attitude, which embarrasses them on account of the fact that several have already recognized Huerta, it is evident that there will be difficulty in settling upon a definite course.

Sounds Warning to Europe

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—Senator Bacon of Georgia, chairman of the senate foreign affairs committee, declared today that while the American policy in Mexico may be different from that of other nations, it must prevail. He sounded a warning to European nations that this country will enforce its stand. He doesn't expect trouble.

CONVICTS BREAK FROM FOLSOM PRISON

Norman Hair, William Roder, Tom Samuels Fled; Ranchers in Pursuit

FUGITIVES IN HIDING AT RATTLESNAKE BAR

More Poses Sent—Warden Johnson Personally Directs Hunt

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 25.—Half a dozen armed posers today took the trail of Norman Hair, William Roder and Tom Samuels, Folsom convicts who last night overpowered Guard Morse near the prison, seized his weapons and fled. Ranchers and guards joined in the chase.

Information was received this morning at Folsom to the effect that the fugitives were hiding near Miller ranch at Rattlesnake Bar. More posers were sent, and Warden Johnson started personally to direct the hunt. He said he expects no trouble in capturing the fugitives.

KILLS HUSBAND MISSES SELF

Jealous Woman Raving in Jail After Shooting—Family Wealthy and Prominent

OAKLAND, Oct. 25.—Crazed by jealousy because of her husband's alleged attentions to other women, Mrs. Millie Brown unsuccessfully attempted to kill herself, then shot her husband, Arch C. Brown twice through the head, instantly killing him. The shooting occurred at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. After breakfasting the woman went to the home of Mrs. Marie Miller and chatted three hours. She then returned home but the revolver failed to go off. Last night she told the story to her brother-in-law, W. H. Brown, a prominent attorney.

She was arrested and is raving incoherently in the city jail. Her own flesh is only burned by the two shots fired in an attempt to suicide. She left a note addressed to her "precious mother in heaven" saying she intended to kill herself because her husband loved another woman.

The family is a prominent and wealthy one and lived in a palatial home. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have been married sixteen years.

SANTA ANA MEN GOING OVER ROADS

Cadillac and Buick from Here Getting Ready for Big Road Race

L. J. McKone, driver, and John Maganety, mechanic, of Santa Ana are on the road to Phoenix getting acquainted with the roads that they will drive over in the Los Angeles to Phoenix race on Nov. 3.

Henley Ellis, driver, and Boyd Ellis, mechanic, have been over the road once, but are making another trip to San Diego to look over curves and corners.

These men are going to drive Santa Ana cars. McKone is entered in the name of the Duplex Distillate Car-buretor Company, and is to drive a Cadillac. The Ellis brothers are in Henley Ellis' Buick.

All reports from the roads the other side of San Diego are that the roads are in fearful shape. There is lots of sand between San Diego and Yuma, and between Yuma and Phoenix the road is terribly rough.

HE STANDS PAT ON CURRENCY BILL

President Wilson Refuses to Discuss Frank Vanderlip's Central Bank Plan

TURNING COLD SHOULDER TO WALL STREET FINANCIERS

Issues Statement—Says Currency Bill is Sound and People Are Supporting It

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank; Henry P. Davison of J. P. Morgan & Co., and Benjamin Strong of the Standard Oil-Morgan forces failed to get an audience yesterday with President Wilson in behalf of the central bank scheme which Vanderlip laid before the currency and banking committee on Thursday. Vanderlip wrote a letter yesterday afternoon urging an interview and the New Yorkers sought over the telephone to make at least an engagement, but all in vain. President Wilson answered the letter with a polite note to the effect that the congress was writing the banking and currency law and that Wall Street was not needed. Finding their efforts vain the trio of financiers returned to New York last evening.

President Wilson in a conference yesterday afternoon with Senators Reed and Stone of Missouri, Kern of Indiana and Owen of Oklahoma, told them he did not propose to have any Vanderlip-Dawson monetary system delivered to the country. Later the White House issued the following statement:

White House Issues Statement

"The White House, Oct. 24, 1913. "When inquiries were made at the White House as to what the president's attitude was towards the proposals made by Mr. Vanderlip of the National City Bank, to the currency committee of the senate, it was stated with the expected emphasis, that of course the president would not recede in any respect from the position he already had taken so clearly and which the whole country understands. He has warmly and unqualifiedly endorsed all the main features of the Glass-Owen bill. He regards the plan provided for in that bill as excellently suited to the existing conditions of the business of the country and in every essential particularly sound and calculated to render the business men of the country a great and immediate service, and he believes that the early enactment of the bill into law is expected and demanded by the most thoughtful business interests. The evidences which have reached him of the support of the country are unmistakable and overwhelming."

SECRETARY STATE REFUSES STAMP

Jordan Does Not Consider Rubber Signature—Appeals Attorney General

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 25.—Secretary of State Jordan continues to refuse to recognize the rubber stamp signature of Acting Governor Wallace who is ill at Pasadena, pending receipt of the decision he has requested from Attorney General Webb. As a result of this action, all documents requiring the signature of the secretary of state are delayed. Webb, who is in Los Angeles has asked for time before giving a final opinion.

CONFERENCE FAVORS CHANGING THE NAME

OPPOSES TAKING CONDITIONAL MILLION

Carnegie's University Offer Subject of Resolution Passed Yesterday

MEETINGS TO END TOMORROW EVENING

Pulpits of City to be Filled With M. E. South Ministers

If the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of the Southern California and Arizona conference has its way about it, the name of the denomination will be changed to the Methodist Episcopal Church of America.

The question of making the change has come before many of the conferences of the church throughout the country, and practically all of those who have voted upon the matter have favored the change. The conference now in session here voted in favor of the new name 36 to 6.

The final action concerning the change will come up before the general conference at Oklahoma City next May. At that time the recommendations of all the conferences will be on file, and among them will be the recommendation of the Southern California and Arizona conference that the new name be adopted.

Another matter of importance concerning which a recommendation was given by the conference here was upon the advisability of accepting $1,000,000 from Andrew Carnegie for Vanderbilt University. A majority of the board of trustees of the university voted in favor of the acceptance. A minority was opposed to it on the ground that there were conditions that effect the claims of the M. E. Church, South, in the Vanderbilt University suit now in the courts.

The conference here voted unanimously in favor of sustaining the views of the majority.

Next Meeting Trinity church, Los Angeles, was selected as the next meeting place of the conference.

A number of visiting members, including some of the local pastors, were introduced to the conference.

The ministers of the conference completed the making of reports for the year. Four young ministers were admitted into full connection with the conference.

An interesting feature of Thursday's session was the introduction to the conference of a colored minister, H. E. Stout of San Diego, the presiding elder of the San Diego district of the Colored Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Mr. Stout made a short address and will be given an opportunity to speak more fully before the session closes.

The conference will close with a session tomorrow night when Bishop Waterhouse will read the list of appointments for the year.

Tomorrow's appointments for tomorrow in the Santa Ana churches, whose pastors have requested visiting ministers to fill their pulpits, are as follows:

Methodist Church, South, 10 a. m., Methodist love feast, conducted by Rev. George S. Clark; 11 a. m., preached by Bishop R. G. Waterhouse, D. D., followed by the ordination of deacons; 6 p. m., Epworth League service conducted by Rev. E. Anderson; 7 p. m., preaching by Rev. J. N. Kenney.

First Methodist church, 11 a. m., Rev. J. T. French, D. D.; 7 p. m., Rev. W. E. Vaughan, D. D. United Presbyterian church, 11 a. m., Rev. W. E. Vaughan, D. D.; 7 p. m., Rev. J. T. French, D. D. First Christian church, 11 a. m., Rev. R. P. Howell; 7 p. m., Rev. C. M. Cagle.

First Baptist church, 7 p. m., Rev. R. P. Howell. Immanuel Baptist church, 11 a. m., Rev. W. O. Waggoner; 7 p. m., Rev. A. A. Walker. First Congregational church, 11 a. m., Rev. C. C. Thompson; 7 p. m., Rev. C. A. Hyatt.

Election Held This morning an election was held at which Rev. R. P. Howell of Los Angeles was elected clerical delegate to the general conference to be held in May, and Presiding Elder S. M. Cheek of Phoenix, Ariz., alternate. E. B. Moore of Los Angeles, was elected lay delegate and E. C. Martin of Santa Ana alternate.

NOTE IS MET THEN SUIT BEGUN

Parties Convinced McKinsey Forged Mrs. Neill's Name

HARRIS ATTACHES TO COVER HIS LOSS

Lien Follows Two Mortgages on Washington Avenue Property

W. Frank Harris paid a $500 note, although he was neither principal nor surety.

He handled a real estate deal for Mrs. Carrie H. Rumsey, and during the deal a forged note passed through his hands. Mrs. Rumsey demanded that Harris stand good for the note. Harris did so, and now he has brought an action in an endeavor to get even financially.

The case is an aftermath of the sudden departure from Santa Ana of Edward M. McKinsey, who had various debts of various kinds still here when he left.

McKinsey built a house on East Washington avenue. But before that he bought a lot, and it was with the lot that Harris got into the McKinsey mix-up.

McKinsey bought the property through Harris, and Mrs. Rumsey accepted in part payment a $500 personal note, saying that she would be satisfied if Mrs. Mary J. Neill went on the note as security. At that time McKinsey was not suspected of being anything but straight, and Harris had no question but that the note brought in by McKinsey with Mrs. Neill's name signed to it bore the genuine signature of Mrs. Neill.

No one knew any different until after McKinsey's sudden disappearance under a cloud. It then came to light that two notes, one the Rumsey note, were declared by Mrs. Neill to be forgeries. Mrs. Neill declared that she had never signed either note.

Mrs. Rumsey and her attorney, H. J. Forgy, became convinced that the signature was a forgery, and Harris was asked to meet the note. Immediately upon paying the note, which with interest came to $572.30, Harris brought an attachment suit against McKinsey, and the sheriff's office has levied on the property, lots 3 and 4, Blodgett & Billings addition. The lien that Harris has put on the property will bring him back at least a part of the money he is out. The property is subject to two mortgages.

Arrested for Speeding

Officer Ballard yesterday arrested C. A. Dumas on a charge of driving an automobile faster than the law allows.

Ballard arrested Robbie Armstrong for riding a bicycle on a sidewalk on South Main street.

BURGLARS OPEN SAFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Burglars opened the safe at the Hotel California this morning, and escaped with $324.

W. Naught, guardian, M. H. Litten and C. C. Young. In some instances the defendants are holders of mortgage interests.

The state and county reached an agreement months ago by which the county agreed to furnish the rights-of-way free to the state for the state highway through the county. Efforts to secure settlements resulted in reaching conclusions with all parties concerning between Santa Ana and the La Habra line, except those named as defendants.

Certificates Issued

This morning the county board of education issued a number of certificates to teachers employed in this county this term for the first time. High school certificates were issued to Frederick L. Trover and Irene M. Parsons, both of Huntington Beach; grammar school certificates to Lela E. Lewis, Randolph; Corle C. Crane and Iva D. Cameron, Cypress; kindergarten certificate to Mary P. Whipple, Santa Ana; special certificate to Lilian Fitz, Anna S. Weld and Bessie C. McCord, Santa Ana.

Case Dismissed This morning Attorney S. M. Davis requested a dismissal of the suit brought by G. P. Hill against the Auditorium Theater Company. Hill's lien was met in the adjustment with the sale of the theater to Clune.

Charles O. Shunk, 37, of Watts, and Elsie E. Thompson, 18, of Garden Grove.

Set for Trial

Cases set for trial by Judge Thomas yesterday are: January 12, Allen vs. Santa Fe; December 15, Meger vs. Rodemeyer.

BRINGING SUITS TO GET ROAD STRIPS

Condemnation Actions Necessary for Rights-of-Way Promised

TWENTY DEFENDANTS NAMED IN COMPLAINT

District Attorney's Office Begins Action—Lien Case Dropped

Twenty condemnations suits against twenty defendants have been found necessary by District Attorney West and Deputy Eden to clear title to rights-of-way for the state highway between Santa Ana and the county line at La Habra.

The complaint in the first of the actions was prepared this morning, and the other will be prepared the first of next week.

The complaint prepared today concerns the road between Fullerton and the La Habra line, and the other the road between Santa Ana and Anaheim. The defendants named have failed to agree with county officials on prices to be paid for right-of-way strips. In some places the county needs only an additional ten-foot strip to get the road to the desired width. In other places a twenty-foot strip will be needed. Two or three curves at corners are concerned.

The defendants in the action having to do with the road north of Fullerton are Benjamin W. Elliott, C. J. Hinshaw, Stella Hinshaw, R. S. Hancock, W. N. Milhouse, Ida L. Hunt, John C. Knudson, L. Ruth Dallman, Charles Dallman-Stephens, C. C. Mead and William Garland.

Those who will be named as defendants in the second action are Catherine Callahan, Title & Guaranty Co., Harriet G. Lillian and Ethel P. McCue, J. J. Swartzbaugh, Charles

NON-MILITANT SUFFRAGISTS OUTLINE PEACEFUL POLICIES

Mrs. Fawcett, President, Declares Order and Common Sense as Methods of Long Existing Society

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The sensation of the militant suffragettes in recent months have served to obscure to a considerable degree the solid, substantial, and really effective campaign work being done in England by the large and growing army of non-militant advocates of votes for women. In view of Mrs. Pankhurst's visit to America, and in order that American men as well as women may have an opportunity to make intelligent comparison between the policies, methods, and aims of the two antagonistic camps, Mrs. Millicent G. Fawcett, leader of the non-militants, has prepared for the United Press the following article:

BY MRS. MILLICENT GARRETT FAWCETT, LL. D.

President of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies.

(Written for the United Press.) The National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies is the largest, the oldest, and as we believe, the best organized suffrage society in the United Kingdom. It is non-party in character, in the sense that it welcomes among its members sympathizers with all political parties or with none. It is, and always has been, strict in its method of expediency but also of principle.

We believe that the best method of promoting the success of our cause is to appeal to what is the highest and best in man, and not to what is lowest; to arouse his sympathy, his conscience, his sense of justice and his courage, and not his terror and cowardice. We contend that all the women's victories of the past fifty years have been won on these lines. Women have by peaceful means, by education, by appeals to experience and common sense, broken down the barriers which a generation or two ago shut out their sex from higher education, the professions, municipal and local franchises, employment in the civil service, etc. The enormous progress of the women's movement has been sustained by crime or violence of any kind.

Moreover, in those countries and states where full parliamentary suffrage has been won it has been won as the result of peaceful propaganda. I need only mention the countries which have already enfranchised their women: New Zealand, Australia, Norway, Finland, ten states in the United States and the territory of Alaska. In not one of these has the women's victory been achieved by violence. Women's suffrage has passed its elementary stages in Denmark, Sweden, Iceland, and a government franchise bill to which women's suffrage may be added by amendment, has recently been mentioned in the Queen's speech in opening a new parliament in Holland. In none of these countries has there been the least trace of organized or unorganized violence on the part of the advocates of the cause.

In Great Britain we have a large number of suffrage societies, representing policies, parties, religious persuasions, professions and industries, and among all of these violence as a method of propaganda has been recognized by two societies in England and one in Ireland. The National Union, which has developed from small beginnings nearly half a century ago is not only the largest of all these organizations but one of the most democratic institutions in the United Kingdom. Every society is entitled to send delegates in proportion to its membership, to the general council, which meets twice a year to decide questions of policy and to elect officers of the union.

Our methods of work are entirely constitutional. We endeavor to educate the country to sympathy with our cause by holding meetings, conducting press campaigns, and organizing courses of educational lectures. Side by side with our educational campaign we carry on the political side of the work. Our endeavor is to transform the sympathy of the voters into political pressure exerted on individual members of parliament, and on parties, in order to maintain and increase a majority in the House of Commons that is committed permanently to the principle of women's suffrage and that will be dependable in divisions on the subject. The latest count gives our numbers as 43,000 annually subscribing members, distributed among our 443 societies. In addition to these we have an auxiliary of non-subscribing members, distributed among our 443 societies. In addition to these we have an auxiliary of non-subscribing members, distributed among our 443 societies. In addition to these we have an auxiliary of non-subscribing members, distributed among our 443 societies.

If it had not been for the tremendous activity and ceaseless educational work carried on by the non-militant suffrage societies in the United Kingdom, I believe that our movement would have been ruined, at any rate for a generation or more, by military force. But we persistently ask why the revolutionary riot and destruction of a few women should be held to justify the political disfranchisement of the women of the world. If a rule of this kind had been applied to men, not a single man would have been enfranchised today. We are entitled to the exercise of the parliamentary franchise. Why apply to women an exceptionally unjust method of conclusion, which men never have dreamed of appropriating to themselves.

TO ENTERTAIN AT CITRUS FAIR

One of Best Bands in the State for Tulare County
Show

VISALIA, Oct. 25.—In the belief that the best is none too good when it comes to securing musical attractions for the Tulare County Citrus Fair, which will be held in this city December 4 to 12, inclusive, the executive committee is now negotiating for the bringing here of what is generally conceded to be the very best concert band in the state of California. Two thousand dollars is being expended for this one attraction alone and in view of the talented soloists included in the organization the money will be well spent.

This band, which will have thirty pieces, will occupy an elevated position in the center of the main pavilion and will entertain the crowds both afternoon and evening, except when other entertainment is being provided. A stage at one end of the main auditorium will allow vocalists and vaudeville performers every convenience afforded in a regular theater and a large number of seats will be provided for the comfort of those attending.

BEACH COMPANY HAS DONATED THE SITE

Huntington Beach News: The Huntington Beach Company, complying with its agreement with the city trustees and the Board of Trade to donate sites for factories here if the city will improve Main street to the city limits, has this week deeded to the Pacific Oilcloth & Linoleum Company blocks 2901 and 2902 in the East Side Villa tract as a site for the factory.

President T. B. Talbert, who is now on his way east to buy machinery, wired this week to Secretary J. E. Nelson from St. Louis that a factory in that city, established less than two years, is now selling its output as fast as manufactured and has not been able to furnish carload lots. The factory officials informed Mr. Talbert, according to his telegram, that the most of their goods are sold west of the Rocky mountains and they did not seem anxious to welcome a California factory which will supply the market in the Pacific coast states.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel, Pills, Act on Bowels Like Pepper Acts
in the Nostrils

Get a 10-cent box now.
Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscular. So all old people need a laxative. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect the gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.—Advertisement.

Forward View for the Progressive Party

By William E. Cadmus, National Organizer

William E. Cadmus, national organizer of the Progressive party, left California this week after a visit of several days. Just before coming to this state Mr. Cadmus had been in Washington and Oregon, where he did a great deal of effective organization work. Since summer he has visited twenty-five states. An expert observer of political conditions, Mr. Cadmus looks forward with great optimism. He believes the Progressive movement is bound to triumph throughout the nation. Victory, however, will depend upon organization, fixity of purpose and sincerity of motive. The occasional defeat of a Progressive candidate he regards as in no wise discouraging; for he sees the movement as a whole sweeping onward with ever-increasing impetus. Herewith is a brief statement written by Mr. Cadmus just before he started eastward.

BY WILLIAM E. CADMUS
The activity of the Republican publicity agents, in announcing the absorption of Progressives by the Republican Nirvana, has accomplished its immediate purpose of throwing many into uncertainty. But this does not mean men are returning to either of the old parties. The Republican press can carry its false reports ten miles, while, with fewer papers, our refutation can travel only ten furlongs. There are indications that in some places this deliberate lying about us has done damage with those who have no Progressive sources of information to give them the truth.

But we must expect this. No new movement, worthy to represent a forward march of humanity, can expect to get out of Egypt without a Red Sea. The trials already met are perhaps slight compared to the sacrifices which may meet us. The richness of the ultimate reward is usually measured by the loftiness of the purpose, and the depth of the sacrifice which measures the sincerity and value of the purpose. We have the high party principles. Future events must weed out the shallow and insincere, and furnish us a soldierhood of the same quality as our principles.

What is the condition of the leaders of the Progressive army today? I know of no leaders we have lost, worthy the name. I have visited twenty-five states in my work of organizing and, aside from Carrington of Maryland, who was recalled, have not met a single national, state or county leader who does not scorn all thought of fusion, and who is not prepared to stand loyally by his guns. We are doing more organizing than all the other parties put together.

I am constantly hearing of newspapers, breaking old bonds and coming to our side. They are discouraged and disgusted with trying to talk for a Republican party which stands for one thing on the Pacific Coast, and for exactly the opposite on the Atlantic; also for a Democratic party which can offer absolutely no unity on the initiative, referendum, the recall, the control of the courts, or equal suffrage, or corporation control, or, except under presidential compulsion, on the tariff. They see the editorial opportunity of standing by a party whose ideals are high, whose plans are sane and workable, and which believes the same thing from California to Maine.

The concrete work of the party is manifesting itself in opening national and state headquarters, in forming Progressive Service Boards, a multitude of clubs, establishing papers, perfecting local political organizations and raising funds, in some states by the thousands, to see that the organization work is complete and efficient, down to the smallest precinct. In equal suffrage states they are appointing precinct committee women as well as men; one state, Kansas, is practically already covered with this dual organization, a state

DRAMA ABROAD AND AT HOME

By Ben Rialto

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The "downtown" should look to their laurels. If the latest Broadway scheme pans out, New York will try out her own new plays and it will be unnecessary to send them out to the tank towns to see how they go. A Western manager, one of the newcomers on Broadway, who already has made other managers sit up and take notice of his innovations, is the creator of the latest idea, a stock theater for the exclusive production of new plays. Those who know him say that he will carry it out, too.

The plan is to have a stock theater, where nothing is put on but new plays. No play that is a success shall be run there more than three weeks. The theater will be equipped with a company of assured stars, all of them specialists, actors and actresses who have won distinction in playing every sort of role. In return for the assurance that the stock theater would not give any play a run, other managers would be asked to agree not to try out new plays. This would work out to the greatest advantage to actors, play-wrights and managers, according to the Westerner who is promoting the scheme. Such a stock theater, with the cast and scenery provided, could put on a first production at much less expense than could any individual manager, who would have to hire a cast and furnish the settings. The playwrights would be benefited because they would be assured that their work would have the portrayal of stars, the best actors and actresses obtainable in every part. The actors would be better off, because they would not be in danger of giving several weeks without pay to the rehearsals of a piece that would fail within a few days of its premier. Actors get no pay for rehearsals, and if the show fails, they are out their time and salary.

New York seems assured to have plenty of musical comedy of a high order during the 1913-1914 season. The latest offering was "Her Little Highness," with Mizzi Hajos in the leading part. It is a tuneful composition, with music by Reginald de Koven. Renold Wolf and Channing Pollock wrote the comedy, obtaining the material from Pollock's "Such a Little Queen." The action of the piece moves all the way from Herzegovina—whatever that is—to a Harlem flat and the plot is all, but nobody looks for a plot these days in a musical comedy.

"Love and Laughter" will be the next musical comedy on Broadway. It will be produced in a week or two by Charles Frohman, who has had his eye for some time upon the piece, which now is being produced at the Lyric Theater, London, with considerable success. The music is by Strauss, author of "The Chocolate

AMUSEMENTS

"Officer 666"
"Officer 666," which ran all last season at the Gaiety Theater in New York City, will be seen at the Grand Opera House. This play is full of risible tricks and melodramatic moments that start a wave of shivers chasing each other up and down one's spine only to end in an uncontrollable burst of laughter at the funny antics of this particular policeman, who, in an unguarded moment is induced to part with his uniform for a brief period, while the borrower of it is endeavoring to rescue a lady fair from the web of complications that have been woven around her by the machinations of an internationally famous picture thief. "Officer 666" is easily the best farce of the year. It has all the elements that go to make a successful play, least of which is a charming love interest wherein Cupid matches his wits against the stern arm of the law and wins a complete victory.

Soldier, and those who have heard it say that the songs are even more "catchy." "The Marriage Market," "When Dreams Come True," "The Doll Girl," and "Adele" are other musical comedies that have won success on the Great White Way this season.

Perhaps the greatest exhibition of trust and confidence that has come to Broadway's notice in a decade occurred when Sir J. M. Barrie, Bart., sent his new play, "The Will," to New York to be played for the first time with John Drew in the leading role. Barrie's manuscript came by mail, with stage directions. He made no suggestions whatever as to the age and appearance of the characters, their "make up" or the stage settings. He indicated no "business." Barrie simply wrote the lines of the play and left its entire production to Charles Frohman. They have been friends for many years and Barrie knows that his ideas and those of Frohman coincide. Barrie never saw his latest play in his own country, and will not know how the child of his brain looks until it has been proved a success or failure.

Many play-goers have remarked the flavor of "Madame Butterfly" in the score and story of "The Marriage Market," in which Donald Brain is starring at the Knickerbocker Theater, where Julia Sanderson had such a long run in "The Sunshine Girl." There is much in both music and plot to suggest "Madame Butterfly."

Edward Sheldon, author of "Salvation Nell," "Romance," and several other plays that have made good, as well as others that have been good bloomers, is getting ambition. Sheldon is due to reach New York early next week from Italy and today he wired Charles Frohman that he is bringing two plays which he expects to be produced this season. Heretofore Sheldon has contented himself with only one play each season.

HIGH TRIBUTE TO JOHNSON

Governor Francis E. McGoovern, of Wisconsin, during a banquet speech in connection with the Badger state's acceptance of a site in the Exposition grounds, paid a high tribute to Governor Johnson, which, it may be explained incidentally, was not printed in M. H. de Young's Chronicle and W. R. Hearst's Examiner, although they had extended accounts of the dedication ceremonies. Governor McGoovern said:

"You may have some idea of my appreciation of your Governor and his work by the fact that I took my stand last year to go outside of party lines to give him my support and help when he was a nominee for the second highest office in the gift of the people of this nation.

"At that time it was my privilege and pleasure to support him and that other illustrious man who was his running mate, although at the same time I was a nominee for office in my own state on the ticket of another party.

"My appreciation of your Governor is so great that I tell you now that I hope some day he will be nominated for the only one higher office than that for which I supported him in 1912, and if he is ever nominated for that highest office within the gift of the American people I pledge you that he shall have my support, regardless of how his nomination comes and no matter for what party he is the nominee."

REVIVAL AT THE NAZARENE CHURCH

The revival at the Church of the Nazarene, corner of Fifth and Barton, has been very good during the week past. It is expected the coming week's meetings will be the greatest of all time with the church full of good things. Meetings every night at 7:30 and every day except Monday and Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday night, October 28, Evangelist James Elliott will give his experience, telling how marvelously he was converted from Romanism to Protestantism, and how instantly God saved him from drunkenness, gambling, and all kinds of sins; sinners are usually converted when he gives his experience, and large crowds come to hear him. Thursday, October 30, at 7:30 p. m., J. P. Sanders, superintendent of the Nazarene Rescue Mission in Los Angeles, will speak. This will be also a great service. He will give the experiences of many who have been "down and out." Friday, October 31, at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., Mrs. M. McKey-nolds, superintendent of the Mexican work in Southern California, will have charge. The Mexican people of Santa Ana are being helped. These will be two services that should be attended by all. Three great meetings tomorrow, Evangelist Elliott, Rev. E. F. Sherman, Deaconess Mary Whipple and others in charge. We invite all. EDWARD M. HUTCHENS, Pastor.

THE CITRUS FRUIT INDUSTRY
Department of Service to Citrus Fruit Growers, Conducted Especially for the Register.
Copyrighted by Reginald Brinsmead.

The Register is pleased to announce that it has made arrangements with Mr. Reginald Brinsmead for a series of articles covering every important phase of the Citrus Fruit Industry.

There will three to six articles each week, published one at a time; but on most subjects there will be several articles or installments following each other at weekly intervals. For instance, today we publish the first of a series of three or four articles on "Citrus Fruits By-Products." The second of this series will appear about a week hence—probably next Saturday. In the meantime—during the ensuing week—will appear one after another the first article of each of several series including the following:

"Cultural Methods as a Factor in Frost Protection."
"Winter Home Sites in the Citrus Belt."
"Citrograms."

We have in preparation several features of value and interest; and subsequent issues will cover a wider diversity of subjects.

In addition to the continuation of the above series and the weekly "Citrograms," our second week's installment will include articles on "Frost Protection as an Insurance to the Industry as a Whole;" "Inter-cropping in the Citrus Orchards."

Trusting the matter will prove satisfactory; while any suggestions with regard to the service will be greatly appreciated at any time.

CITRUS BY-PRODUCTS

As the California citrus output increases in size the importance of the utilization of the call fruit becomes more and more apparent; not only as opening up a new field of industry, but as at the same time providing an outlet for much fruit of inferior grade, and so proving a factor in withholding from shipment much poor fruit to the great ultimate benefit of the consumer and of the industry at large.

There has never been greater interest taken, never greater inquiry into the possibilities of citrus by-product manufacture in this state, than at the present time.

The fact that the past has seen little of a permanent nature accomplished in the industry in California we believe to be no criterion as to the possibilities of the future. The prime importance of a thorough knowledge of the conditions of marketing, demand, world production and the possible output from the amount of fruit available for any plant which it is proposed to establish cannot be overestimated. The amount of accurate information of value to anyone looking to the establishment of citrus by-product factories has been very limited.

We are greatly indebted to Mr. Wallischlaeger, secretary of the Citrus Protective League, for valuable assistance rendered in collecting and procuring data covering the matter in hand.

Citrus By-Products in the Past
Citrus fruits were highly esteemed by the ancients, their mention in fable and myth going back over two thousand years; the appreciation in which they were held being further attested by the many uses to which they were put.

In his "Citrus Fruits 250 Years Ago," Chas. F. Lummis quotes from a most erudite treatise on the Orange and Citrus Fruits, written and published by Ferrarius in 1646. This work gives a list of by-products of the orange in use at that time, and is noteworthy in that in most cases the process of manufacture of today does not essentially differ from that of so many years ago. The list of orange products comprises the following:

Essential oil, from leaves and flowers. "Valuable for cuts and bruises."
Water from the flowers of oranges. "A remedy for sluggish liver," and "A joyous odor."
Distilled oil, from the orange flowers. "A great aperient with a heavenly odor."
Fermentations of the flowers. "For heart disease."
Orange brandy.
Julep preserve.
Candied orange flowers.
Orange troches.
Orange butter, five different kinds.

GUNS AND MUCH TALK LANDED TWO CAMPERS IN THE COUNTY JAIL
Strangers Found Under a Tree
Arrested by Santa Ana Officers

Two strangers drove into Santa Ana yesterday afternoon in an old buggy drawn by a $10 horse, and they camped under a walnut tree on the Halliday property on East First street. The two men used the buggy cushion for a pillow and stretched out on the ground to sleep without any cover. Policemen Lacy and Ryan interrupted their snooze last night, and took the two men, aged about 22 each, to jail. The two men gave their names as C. F. Scott and C. F. Johnson. Scott had a revolver in his pocket, and another revolver and a flashlight were found on the buggy seat. In a suit case were two bottles of liquor. The liquor probably had a good deal to do with the talkativeness of Johnson. When the officers began to quiz the pair, Johnson told a rambling story about going to Tustin to see an uncle whose name he did not know. "You keep on talking and they'll catch us yet," warned Scott two or three times. But Johnson kept on answering questions, and soon the officers had him cornered in a falsehood. "There!" shouted Scott. "I told you they'd catch us. Now it will go hard with us." The men were locked up on suspicion.

A GOOD MUSEUM.

Art and Curio Exhibit of P.-T. Associations Attracts Attention

Santa Ana has really a good museum, while the art and curio exhibit of the city Parent-Teachers' Federation remains open. All who have been up to the old Commercial high school to see this collection of the rare and curious are amazed to find that Santa Ana contains so many odd and interesting articles.

Chief of interest is the collection from India, owned by Mr. W. H. Hoy. Mr. Hoy was for a number of years in the employ of the British government and during that time collected an interesting lot of furniture, idols, etc., from that wonderfully interesting country. Here may be seen a genuine idol, before which doubtless hundreds of people have fallen down and worshiped; beautiful and expensive carvings in teak wood and ebony.

The A. C. Twist collection includes many articles of historic interest, for instance, a string of beads worn by Marie Antoinette and a copy of the fortune book which Napoleon was supposed to have consulted. This copy is in itself interesting for it was published in 1826, not many years after the downfall of the "Man of Destiny." Among other interesting features to be seen are a copy of the New York Herald printed the day after Abraham Lincoln was shot; a Bible printed about 300 years ago, china ware used by our great grand parents, an ice water container said to have been brought to this country in the year of the famous "tea tax," together with exhibits of Filipino, Hawaiian and Indian work.

These exhibits have been collected by friends of the different schools of the city and placed on exhibit for the benefit of the city federation of Parent-Teachers' Associations. A prize has been offered to the school making the best exhibit, consequently all are represented, including the new intermediate, and the Mexican school.

An admission fee of 10 cents is charged. Tea and wafers are served inside. The interest manifested in this exhibition has been so great that it has been decided to keep it together Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Little Friends Celebrate

Little Miss Enola Crites and tiny Master Howard Small celebrated their second birthdays yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Buckingham on South Flower street. The little ones are called "the twins" by their friends, as the stork brought them within four hours of each other.

A number of their friends spent the afternoon with the little folks and some of the grown-ups just "dropped in." Ice cream with cake cut from two dainty ones which bore the names and dates of Enola and Howard were served.

"Uncle Joe" Buckingham presented each of the children with a $5 gold piece and they received numerous other gifts.

MRS. WARREN'S WELCOME SPEECH TO TEACHERS

White Ribboners of Santa Ana Give Hallowe'en Evening for Educators

Mrs. Lea Warren, president of the local W.C.T.U., which last night gave a delightful reception to the teachers of the city, greeted the company of educators as they assembled in the Sunday school auditorium of the First Methodist church to listen to a splendid program. She said:

It seems hardly necessary to stand before you to extend a welcome to these few teachers that we have met together in these pleasant gatherings, but on behalf of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, I heartily welcome you, and especially we welcome all our new teachers who are meeting with us for the first time. We want you to know that we are ever ready to aid you and to help advance the cause of education in every way we can; we want you to know that we are your friends and you have our best wishes for a most profitable and enjoyable year.

We realize that with our beautiful new Polytechnic High school, greater things are possible and better advantages can be given our boys and girls, and by having this new school this year many more new teachers have been added, and we hope to meet you this evening and become acquainted with you, that we may co-operate together in the work of training the youth of today to be good citizens of tomorrow. It is only when the teachers and parents work in harmony that the best results are obtained and we hope there will be many happy conferences during the year.

We wish to ask a favor from all the teachers that when our Superintendent of Scientific Temperance Instruction calls on you, you work with her for the moral betterment of the boys and girls. We have a good superintendent in this department, Mrs. W. B. Tedford, whom most of you know, and who wishes the co-operation of all the teachers in this great work. Again I welcome you.

Successful Meeting

Sarah A. Rounds, Tent No. 10, Daughters of Veterans, held a very profitable meeting last evening at A. R. Hall with the majority of the officers and members present. One comrade was obligated and one new sister initiated.

Mrs. Ella Bishop, department inspector, was present to inspect the Tent, and gave a very good talk on the work of the order. Later Mrs. Hugh Hill invited the Tent to hold the next social meet at her home, the date being November 5.

After the business portion of last night's meeting was concluded all journeyed to Cochem's ice cream parlors, where delicious refreshments were served in the balcony. Pink carnations and roses were used in decorating the balcony and the refreshment tables.

"500" Card Party

Mrs. Walter Eden entertained Thursday evening with a Hallowe'en card party for Miss Gladys Pauline Heegler, who with her mother, Mrs. Frederick Heegler, is a guest at the Eden home on North Main street. Progressive Five Hundred was played, prizes being awarded to Miss Heegler, Miss Gallup and Harvey Gardner, after which dainty refreshments were served.

The evening's guests were Misses Gladys Heegler, Milly Mize, Jessie Wilkes, Gallup, Messrs. Harvey Gardner, Robert Mize, Carl Calbraith, and John Stark of Los Angeles.

RECEPTION FOR TEACHERS

White Ribboners of Santa Ana Give Hallowe'en Evening for Educators

The annual reception given by the Santa Ana Woman's Christian Temperance Union to the teachers of the city schools was held last night in the First Methodist church. The edifice had been beautifully and elaborately decorated under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Rankin, and every portion of it was made most attractive by immense yellow chrysanthemums in brown baskets, pampas grass and cat tails were used in profusion in the Sunday school auditorium, cream colored chrysanthemums, pampas grass and ferns adorned the main auditorium and the dining room was lavishly decked with Hallowe'en symbols.

The reception committee, headed by Mrs. Walter B. Tedford, greeted the guests, numbered by the scores, in the Sunday school auditorium. In addition to the teachers there were present the members of the city board of education and the pastors of the various churches, accompanied by their wives. With the members of the W. C. T. U. and their husbands the number present went into the hundreds. The teachers were warmly greeted by the White Ribboners and increased their acquaintance very pleasantly during the "getting acquainted" hour. Following this period, an enjoyable program was rendered in the church auditorium. As a prelude to this Mrs. Lea Warren, W. C. T. U. president, welcomed the teachers in a pleasing way, then introduced Mrs. F. H. McElree, chairman of the program committee, who presided during the program, which was opened with inspiring music by Prof. Francis Haynes' orchestra. This orchestra contributed several excellent selections during the evening including the closing number of the program.

A pleasing violin solo by Kenneth Horton with accompaniment by Miss Donna Horton, was followed by two vocal numbers from Robert Paine, Mrs. A. J. Padgham accompanying. Mrs. Padgham also gave the musical setting for a Hallowe'en reading charmingly rendered by Miss Edith Roberts. This beautiful number elicited an encore.

A German number and an English song were given by Miss Cora Siefert with Mrs. Dorothy Page Harper accompanying. Mrs. A. J. Padgham and Mrs. Arnold Peck each played a piano duet was attractively rendered by Mrs. Harper and Miss Caroline Haughton. Miss Birenla Henry greatly pleased the company with a reading from Browning.

The guests were invited to the dining room at the conclusion of the program and as they were ushered into the spacious banquet hall the electric lights were turned out, leaving only the glow of the scores and scores of lighted candles to illuminate the wonderfully decorated room. Mrs. Rankin and her decorating committee had accomplished her marvelous task; the tables placed to form the letters "W. C. T. U." were lavishly decorated with richly tinted autumn leaves and trailing vines. Pumpkins were used as candelabra, each holding four candles. Hallowe'en visitants and symbols galore were in evidence. There were ghosts, white clad and topped with weird pumpkin heads all about; there were witches and black cats, and weirdly carved pumpkins, from which grinning faces leaped at the spectators. Even the napkins at the feast were gay with the same fantastic decorations. The place seemed a veritable Hallowe'en castle. The guests were loud in their praises of the unique and artistic effect achieved.

Brick orange sherbet and vanilla ice cream from the Dragon were served with assorted cakes and salted almonds, the delicate refreshments closing a delightful evening that was greatly enjoyed by both guests and hostesses. The entertainment committee having the refreshments in charge was headed by Mrs. Raugh.

Wedding Bells

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at the residence of the Rev. R. Pyke on West First street, on Thursday afternoon, when his daughter, Mrs. E. E. McFarlane, of Westminster, was united in marriage to Judson Barker, lately of Hemet, Cal.

The living room, used for the ceremony, was beautifully decorated with pepper foliage and chrysanthemums. The bride and groom stood beneath a massive arch of palm branches, in the center of which swung a garland decorated with greenery. The handsome couple and the beautiful background made an impressive picture, while in the foreground of the scene the father of the bride read the Presbyterian marriage service.

Only relatives of the contracting parties were present.

Charming Dancing Party

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was a ball given by the Melkieleh school for dancing last evening in the Armory hall on South Birch street.

Both the ball room and spacious reception parlor were beautifully decorated, an effective color scheme of green and gold being carried out. Excellent music was furnished by the Balboa Orchestra and all present enjoyed a most pleasant evening.

Among the guests were Messrs. and Mesdames N. A. Ulin, J. W. Tubbs, Robert Williams, Verne Flagg, W. L. Grubb, Gowan, James, Mrs. Addie Collins and Mrs. Elliott; Misses Marie Harris, Margaret Flagg, Emily West, Dorothy Twist, Irene Smith, Varian Cravath, Greeba Scott, Helen Carden, Audrey Ulin, Gowen; Messrs. Knight, Stewart, Culvert, Murphy, Columbia, Farnall, Lacy, Jacobs, Severe and Ballarg.

Pretty Birthday Dinner

Mamma and papa and little folks participated in the six course dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Gilbert last evening for their little daughter, Eugenia, who has reached the mature age of two years. Mrs. Gilbert selected yellow for her color scheme and the centerpiece was a delicate one of golden glow and this, with the dainty yellow sandles and pretty shades of the same tint, made a charming picture. The place cards were decorated with yellow flowers and an individual golden candle lighted each place.

After dinner music and conversation passed the time. Little Miss Eugenia received a number of nice gifts with which to remember the anniversary.

The following were the guests: Mr. and Mrs. Asa Vandermaast, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vandermaast and little son Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Prince and little son Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jordan and little son Harold, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Wright, Misses Ruby and Mabel Wright, relatives of Mrs. Asa Vandermaast, who are visiting here from the East.

REV. COPP MADE REPUTATION AS A NEMESIS FOR "BLUES"

Gives Treatment for all Kinds of Mental Diseases and Saves Many from Suicide

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—"Are you contemplating suicide? Don't! Heredity, training and environment take the step until you have seen the Rev. Zed Hotel Copp, Philadelphia." This you might read an advertisement of the Rev. Mr. Copp's "mental clinic," if the Presbyterian minister who conceived the idea and is putting it into effect and results, needed to advertise. He doesn't. His work in Philadelphia has advertised itself like it did in Washington, D. C. Besides filling the pulpit of one of the most exclusive and wealthy churches of the Quaker City, the Rev. Zed Copp has made an enviable reputation as a nemesis for "blues," mental depression and "grouches" through his free "mental clinic."

The Rev. Zed Copp has had the training to make his idea a success. As an accredited Presbyterian minister of the gospel in Washington and pastor of a church located in the very heart of the capital's "red light" district, he came to be known as a veritable "good angel" to women of that locality and to young men and girls who got into trouble via the glided route. He was a familiar figure at the police court, and he was a tireless worker in the interest of the dependents whom he befriended and whom he thought worthy of a chance. He was a deep sociological student, and a practical one. Just before answering the call to the local church the Rev. Mr. Copp studied law, passed the bar examination in Washington and opened an office where he dispensed free legal advice to the poor and needy, and acted as arbitrator in domestic troubles which had not reached the courts. During all his work he has made a deep study of the cases of those who have attempted suicide and failed. It was after he came here that he decided to establish his "mental clinic" on the theory that it is better to change a man's viewpoint early so that suicidal melancholia would not develop through brooding over wrongs and hardships, faulted or otherwise, rather than wait until too late. Therefore the Rev. Mr. Copp holds his clinics twice a week—for several hours on Wednesday and Friday evenings. When his "patients" call, he takes them one by one into his private study and talks to them. He gives each a chance to "get his broodings off his chest."

"There is hope for the mental prisoner, confined in the cell of his own despair. He need not suicide in order to escape the execution of relentless fate. There is always a living way out, if he will only look for it." Thus spoke the Rev. Mr. Copp, when asked by a representative of the United Press about the clinic. Pastor Copp's theory, based on observation, is that suicide is the result of sin—either one's own, or another's—against body, mind or spirit.

His method of treatment is psychophysical, the pastor explained. He greets the would-be suicide cordially and puts him or her at ease and relaxation. Then he requires a statement of facts, without mental reserve.

NEWSY NEWS FROM NEW YORK

By Carlton Ten Eyck

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—For the only time perhaps in the countless years of its stirring history, New York's "People's Forum" is closed. Union Square is not open to the would-be demonstrators for the first time "since the memory of man runneth not back to the contrary." This does not mean that Father Knickerbocker—or Mayor Adolpho Kline, to be exact—has put the lid on free and untrammelled speech in the greater city. The construction of the new Broadway-Levittown Avenue Subway has progressed that far, and the work is occupying the Square. The place where "Big Bill" Haywood and other exhorters have harangued the crowds, where Miss Ingham and that was, and "General" Rosalie Jones have demanded votes for women, now looks like the shaft house of a West Virginia Coal mine. First they built iron fences around the walks and grass spaces of the Square, and its outraged habitués were confined to the benches bordering the pavements. This was bad enough, but then came workmen who erected frame shacks all over the place, cutting off the view across the ancient quadrangle. Then they began to drive wagons in to the Square, to be filled with dirt and rocks belched forth from the wheels of the earth by the powerful machinery that is building the underground railway.

The Union Square "regulars" are disconsolate. They cannot tell how long their favorite loafing place will be cluttered up with the construction work. All winter, at least, the place will be filled with the temporary buildings and noisy with the clank of machinery. It is no place for an evening hobo or a voracious I.W.W., and there is no telling when it will be again.

Scene of Exciting Events
Union Square in its day has seen some interesting and exciting events. Times when it was the literary center of New York in more ways than one. In the earliest days, rooming houses flanked the huge open space and there abided many poets, novelists, essayists, composers and the like. Then came the encroachments of business, spreading ever northward, and the homes where once dwelt the writers were supplanted by office buildings—skyscrapers in their heyday—wherein held forth the publishing houses. A decade ago, the popular magazines were published in Union Square and some of the most notable book publishers had offices there.

Gradually these, too, moved up town. The buildings, made second and then third rate by the erection of more imposing structures further up, were occupied with small manufacturers and the like. Fourteenth street became the "Great White Way" of the East Side, and Union Square lost all its grandeur. But the old rectangle did not lose its fresh air and its sunshine, and it became the regular habitat of the homeless, the friendless, the man out of work and the idler by choice. Daily they came and sat on the benches and read newspapers picked from the waste cans. They talked together of many things, of politics, war, finance. This gave the orators their ideas, and Union Square became the "People's Forum." There the political agitators went, to work for their candidates. There the candidates themselves addressed huge masses of voters. Socialists sought the place to spread their propaganda. The Industrial Workers of the World found Union Square a fertile spot to sow their seed. Organized labor, on the first Monday of each September, used the place for speeches after the Labor Day parade, and lastly came the suffragists. They held several meetings in the square, their women orators addressing the crowds that were always ready to gather in the Square on the slightest provocation.

Many times there have been riotous scenes in Union Square. Emma Goldman has preached there. The police have often been called upon to preserve order, and violent speakers have been arrested. Once Sheriff Harberger surrounded the place with his deputies and arrests were made when I.W.W. speakers trod on the flag. There is no disposition on the part of the city to take Union Square away from the people for all time, but the exigencies of subway construction necessitated the use of the Square for that purpose, and for an indefinite time its frequenters are deprived of it.

Los Angeles Produce Market

One of the largest single shipments of Eastern butter to arrive in Los Angeles this fall was received yesterday. In all there was nearly four cars, or about 23,832 pounds. The receipts posted on the Produce Exchange yesterday were 33,592 pounds in all, the highest figure that has been known for months.

It is predicted by the creamery men that a large portion of this Eastern butter will find its way to the retailers. There was no change in the quotations of either butter or eggs yesterday as there were no transactions on the Produce Exchange.

The local vegetable market was less firm yesterday than has been noted for the last two weeks, owing to the greater supply of several of the staple varieties of vegetables. Green and wax beans, which a week ago were in great demand, and at a price ranging as high as 9 cents per pound, yesterday went beginning at 3 cents and many beans were sold at 50 cents per sack. A reduction of from 1 to 2 cents per pound on peas also was noted.

A jump in the price of Shima potatoes has resulted from the policy of this producer to keep a large portion of his supply from the market till late in the year, hoping for an increase in price. $1.80 to $1.90 is now being asked by the local wholesalers to the trade.

$9.30 A BOX FOR ORANGES

C. C. Chapman Receives Handsome Figure for Some of His Crop

FULLERTON, Oct. 25.—The 1913 orange shipping season here closes November 1. Growers have received far better prices than ever before and while the crop was only about 60 per cent of normal the net receipts were far greater this year than in any previous year.

The estimate placed on the coming crop by experts is 75 per cent normal.

C. C. Chapman, pioneer orange grower of this section, this week received $9.30 a box in the Eastern market.

W. L. Hale sold the oranges from two acres for $4000.

HOPE IS ENDED FOR FURTHER RESCUES

72 Bodies Recovered from Stag Canyon Mine—Death List Now 263

DAWSON, N. M., Oct. 25.—Seventy-two corpses had been recovered from the Stag Canyon coal mine at 8:30 today. At that hour ex-Superintendent Joseph Smith, who is familiar with the levels, declared there was not the slightest possibility of any more men being alive within the mine. The latest estimate of the dead is 263. Conditions in the tunnel are such that it seems impossible that other bodies can be recovered.

MORE DEAD RECOVERED FROM WRECKED COAL MINE

DAWSON, N. M., Oct. 25.—At 11 o'clock last night seven more bodies were removed from the Stag Canyon coal mine, making a total of sixty-four lost so far recovered and twenty-three rescued alive out of the 284 miners imprisoned in the workings by the explosion.

Four of the seven bodies last removed were recovered near the spot where the two helmet men of the government rescuing party yesterday lost their lives from the poisonous gases.

RECEPTION TO THE NEW ONES

Students and Teachers of High School at Social Affair

(By Staff Correspondent.)
ORANGE, Oct. 25.—The annual reception to new students and new teachers, more popularly known as the "Freshman Reception," was given at the Orange Union High School last evening.

An expansive and interesting program was prepared for the evening and all present entered into it with much zest. Various novel ideas in the way of booths and "side shows" served to attract and amuse the large crowd which was in attendance. The "fresh" and the new students and teachers were given a thorough initiation into the social life of the local high school.

The main auditorium, where most of the program was staged, was beautifully decorated in yellow and white chrysanthemums with a "welcome" design on the stage curtain.

Fortune telling booths, palmists and other mysterious shrines held forth in competition with "movie" shows and numerous other attractions.

When all of the fun was exhausted the assemblage was adjourned to the Christian church basement, where a tempting banquet had been spread by the juniors. The basement was gayly arrayed in pennants and floral decorations while the delicious feast served as a fitting conclusion to a pleasant evening.

the trail of unwary fish in Bear Valley today. They are in search of the material for a fish dinner which is planned for Monday evening. The affair will be for the firemen and their ladies.

Those who are on the trip are: Dr. D. F. Royer, W. G. Hagen, C. J. Porter, A. L. Tomblin, K. E. Watson, Harry Winslow, George B. Christensen, A. R. Todhunter, George Sunbury, W. E. Clement, Percy Davis and J. A. Purviance.

D. M. Crossman and Mr. Mehlin, of the Southern Pacific engineering corps, are at Villa Park today setting grading stakes for a spur track for a new packing-house which will be built for the Villa Park Orchard Association.

The funeral of Arthur W. Clabby, whose death took place Monday evening, was held yesterday afternoon at the family residence, 144 North Olive street. Services were conducted at 2 o'clock in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives, and were beautified by many floral offerings. Interment took place in the Santa Ana cemetery.

A number of local ladies attended a meeting of the Clover Club Thursday at the home of Mrs. T. B. Elliott in Santa Ana. The Orange members were: Mrs. W. B. Park, Mrs. W. T. Byester, and Mrs. T. N. Knight.

Mrs. Hugh Campbell of Columbus, Montana, is visiting here with the W. E. Anderson family.

Messrs. H. M. Gray and D. Chaffee made a trip to Whittier today.

Mrs. A. P. Morey left last evening for an extended visit with friends in Ft. Dodge, Iowa.

Mrs. R. W. Jones of El Modena, and Mrs. D. R. Collins returned yesterday from San Diego, where they have been attending the Christian Endeavor convention.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Porter, who have been touring the Orient for two months, are expected home today.

MOZART PICTURES PROVE WONDERFULLY ATTRACTIVE

Splendid—wonderful—these and other adjectives can well be used in describing the moving pictures shown by Mrs. Mozart at the Grand Opera House last night, and to be shown again this evening.

The strange peoples; cities of ancient and modern history; grandeur of the ever changing scenes; ancient Egypt and the manner in which the natives have labored for thousands of years; Ceylon, declared by travelers to be the most beautiful country in the universe; flowery Japan, teeming with wonder and beauty; nooks and corners in China, showing many strange sights; India, with its temples and ruins that were built centuries ago; Switzerland and the Alps, from green valleys dotted here and there with picturesque Alpine villages to snow-covered heights, is a trip of delight and beyond description—these make wonderful pictures.

FULLERTON CHURCH WON THE DECISION

Fullerton News: Rev. E. J. Station and C. R. Allen returned Tuesday from Santa Rosa, where they had been attending the annual meeting of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church. They were there representing the Fullerton church which had appealed from the decision of the Presbytery at Los Angeles enjoining them to give Geo. B. Key, a former elder of the local church, a letter of dismissal to the Placentia church.

The local church claimed that Mr. Key had withdrawn irregularly by joining the Placentia church before he had obtained his letter from the Fullerton church, and after he had thus withdrawn, and had been recognized by the Presbytery to be a member of the Placentia church, they had no jurisdiction, and could not issue a letter.

The Fullerton church was not only sustained in its complaint, but the Los Angeles Presbytery was enjoined from further demanding a letter for Mr. Key.

It was voted that the Synod would meet next year in Sacramento.

APPLES AS GOOD OR BETTER THAN OTHERS

Huntington Beach News: The crop of apples grown by W. S. Hill of Huntington Beach this year on his ranch nearby will compare favorably in quantity and quality with those grown in what is known as the "apple section" of California at Watsonville. In fact, they are as good apples as are produced anywhere. They were grown without irrigation and at an expense which assures their being a profitable crop and a crop that seems never to vary. It has been the same for the past five years. Mr. Hill has about two acres planted to apples and there are several varieties, including the Greening, Bellefleur, Bannan, and White Winter Pearmain.

THE FAMILY COUGH MEDICINE
In every home there should be a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, ready for immediate use when any member of the family contracts a cold or a cough. Prompt use will stop the spread of sickness. S. A. Sild, of Mason, Mich., writes: "My whole family depends upon Dr. King's New Discovery as the best cough and cold medicine in the world. Two 50c bottles cured me of pneumonia. Thousands of other families have been equally benefited and depend entirely upon Dr. King's New Discovery to cure their coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Every dose helps. Price 50c and $1.00. All druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned has severed his connection with the France Investment Company, of Los Angeles. The above named company assumes all obligations.

(Signed) E. M. ALEXANDER.

It would be hard to imagine anything more interesting and pleasurable than the idea of specializing and catering to a clientele who wanted to be instructed while being amused and entertained. Believing also that many subjects for pictures that were being offered to the public throughout the country were demoralizing in their effect, particularly upon the young, she decided to launch out and present only pictures that would bring out and nourish the best there was in us, cultivating a taste for the good and beautiful, something that would tend toward character building and leave an impression that would be inspiring and have its influence.

Realizing the popular demand for pictures of a high class, Mrs. Mozart was the first to conceive the idea of specializing and catering to a clientele who wanted to be instructed while being amused and entertained. Believing also that many subjects for pictures that were being offered to the public throughout the country were demoralizing in their effect, particularly upon the young, she decided to launch out and present only pictures that would bring out and nourish the best there was in us, cultivating a taste for the good and beautiful, something that would tend toward character building and leave an impression that would be inspiring and have its influence.

COFFEE

Coffee flies away if exposed to air—not the bean, but the flavoring essence which is the coffee.

Schilling's Best is choice coffee preserved in its aroma—its fragrant essence held captive in aroma-tight cans.

Cleanly granulated, ready for use, 40c a lb—moneyback.

FINISHING A PART OF GOOD ROADS

NEW HOPE, Oct. 24.—The barbecue and reception which was given last week by the Holly Sugar Co. at Huntington Beach, was attended by many local people.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ebel of Tustin spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Melvin.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Etchison spent last Saturday and Sunday at San Bernardino, visiting with Mrs. Etchison's sister.

Mrs. Geo. Williams' sister, of Los Angeles, and aunt from the East, will arrive Sunday for an extended visit in this community.

The good roads on Fifth street are progressing fine. They have reached almost to Blankenbiller's store from the west, and are finished to Belva.

—Mr. Horatio Cogswell, University of Southern California College of Music, has resumed his class in voice, and will receive pupils every Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Pugham, 208 East Ninth St., Santa Ana. Italian method. Home 269. Sunset 874W.

When down town and thirsty stop at Taylor's. The best soda, the best and purest creams and fruits and always the best service. 216 W. Fourth.

—Night school now in session at Orange County Business College.
